RUFUS KING & CO.

DAILY, - - - $1,00 per number.
TRI-WEEKLY, - - - $3.50 " "
WEEKLY, - - - $10 " "

Monday Morning, Jan. 8.

The Sentinel for the Session

1. Legislature meets Madison on Wednesday, 1st of January next. As heretofore the Editors of the Sentinel will be at the Statehouse, and furnish reports of the proceedings of both Houses, as well as other matters as are of interest. The telegraph line will probably be in operation again, and thus the increased facilities we hope to be more prompt in our reports than ever before. Abstracts of the acts of the Department of State, and of Committees etc. will be furnished as fast as they appear.

We will furnish the Daily Sentinel to subscribers for the session at one dollar for eight weeks.

(which we trust will be the extent of the same) and at that rate for any further time.

The First Weekly Sentinel will be sent at 50¢ for each week.

The Second Weekly will contain the whole of its scope and at the subscription price of one dollar per annum, thus will furnish an additional four cents for persons to subscribe for it.

The cost of Saturday presser the second week will be without any later notice in the East.

The Grand Inquisitor on the Rock.

We made out that Judge Miller's Grand Jury would not sit on Saturday morning, charged with a presentment against the editors of the Sentinel and Post. However, for the facts which they have stated and the sentiments which they have expressed, in regard to the said Grand Jury, in their Post, and the proceeding of the Court and its Officers, during the past week, it is of learning whom we had concluded, it was right to do up a copy of the presentment.

Judge Clark would neither furnish one nor any other reporter, to make one.

However, from those who have seen the Post, we learn that it was right to do up a copy of the presentment.

Thus far, however, the Post has not done so.

The Grand Jury complained that we for so long and so often, exposed the conduct of the Government to the public, and that we were without any other course but to do up a copy of the presentment.

It is to be regretted that the Post did not know what precise article of law or statute of the Constitution they had violated.

It is to be regretted that the Post did not know what precisely the pleasure of the Grand Jury was.

It is to be regretted that the Post did not know what precisely the Grand Jury required.

It is to be regretted that the Post did not know what precisely the Grand Jury required.
